

SAFE STATES

The Safe States Alliance is the only national non-profit organization and professional association comprised of public health injury and violence prevention professionals representing all U.S. states and territories. From the student just starting out to the seasoned professional, Safe States members specialize in a variety of areas, including program coordination, management, data analysis, and public policy.

Our diverse and growing membership includes more than 500 individuals and organizations from:

- state, local, and tribal health departments
- schools/universities
- federal agencies
- hospitals/health care organizations
- private non-profit organizations

Why Safe States?

For over 25 years, Safe States has been forging strong partnerships and amplifying the voice of injury and violence prevention. We are nimble and positioned to act quickly in activities that advance the field and promote the need for research, evaluation, and funding.

ACCESS

Extensive network of program, policy, surveillance, and evaluation experts from state and local health departments and hospitals across all 50 states to support broad scale national assessments and scans.

EXPERIENCE

Knowledgeable staff and leadership with a long and reputable history of organizing and leading diverse groups nationally on a variety of issues.

INFLUENCE

Actively partner with a diverse set of multi-sector organizations committed to enhancing the practice of injury and violence prevention, including convening the Injury and Violence Prevention Network which advocates for public policies and funding to support the field.

Partner With Us!

Let's work together to reduce the burden and strengthen the practice of injury and violence prevention.
